Author Jake Biondi introduces new MAJESTY series

BOYSTOWN writer seeks feedback on first chapter of new book series

Fans have opportunity to influence MAJESTY story lines

BOYSTOWN series author Jake Biondi has introduced his new MAJESTY book series, a thriller that take place during the Middle Ages, in a unique way.

“I have always been interested in period pieces, so I thought it was time to develop one of my own,” Biondi explained. “I hope that MAJESTY will show readers all the excitement and intrigue of the Middle Ages along with a lot of romance of all kinds.” MAJESTY will provide readers with all the twists and turns that Biondi’s audience has come to love. The first book in the MAJESTY series is titled “Death of the King.”

“Interacting with my readers and fans has always been the best part of my job,” Biondi stated. “So it makes sense to give readers a ‘sneak peek’ of MAJESTY so that they can provide feedback.”

Biondi decided to release the first chapter of “MAJESTY: Death of the King” online at MajestyTheSeries.com so that readers get a preview of the series and may offer their comments and thoughts. “This is a chance for readers to influence what happens next,” Biondi added. Reader should visit this link: <http://www.majestytheseries.com/preview-chapter-one.html>

Interested readers may preview the first chapter of “Death of the King” free at MajestyTheSeries.com. Biondi hopes that readers will share their thoughts with him so that he can modify the first book according to their wishes prior to publishing the entire novel later this year.

Biondi added, “I am so grateful for BOYSTOWN readers and their positive response to that series. I am hoping those fans will also embrace the MAJESTY series and use this opportunity to influence how the story lines unfold.”

Biondi has once again teamed up with designer Anna Crosswell of Cover Couture to create the artwork for the MAJESTY series. The artwork for “MAJESTY: Death of the King” features popular actors Jesse Pattison and Eric Claussen.

“It’s really an honor to be the face of the new MAJESTY series. It’s my first book cover, so it’s definitely something I’ve looked forward to for a while,” said Pattison. “I guess all those sit ups were for something after all.”

“It’s an honor and a privilege to be a part of the new MAJESTY series. I am humbled and greatly appreciate this opportunity,” said Claussen.

“Jake is one of the most easy-going, supportive people that I’ve had true pleasure working with,” Pattison added. “It’s definitely a refreshing work relationship that I don’t take for granted. Working with him is amazing.”

About working with Biondi, Claussen added, “It’s just wonderful. He’s a great, down to earth guy with a big heart. We have a shared vision for MAJESTY and it’s great to work together to introduce more and more people to his new series.”

BOYSTOWN fans need not worry that MAJESTY means the end of BOYSTOWN. “Not at all,” Biondi said. “I am currently writing ‘BOYSTOWN Season Nine’ at the same time as I am writing the first MAJESTY book. BOYSTOWN will continue as long as fans want it to....and I hope MAJESTY will have an equally bright future. It all depends on the fans.”

“Jake Biondi is one of the most masterful writers of fiction of our time,” said Roger Ward on Amazon.com. “While reading the first chapter of Jake Biondi’s latest novel MAJESTY, I was immediately reminded of Shakespeare’s famous line from the play Henry IV, Part 2, “Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown” – especially when you have a treacherous and backstabbing family waiting in the wings. The opening chapter of MAJESTY sets the stage for what apparently is going to be an action-packed novel full of twists, turns, and cliffhangers. Buckle your seatbelts, Biondi fans. It’s going to be a bumpy ride.”
