New MAJESTY book series arrives in time for the holidays

Thrilling new series by BOYSTOWN author Jake Biondi hits bookshelves December 13

MAJESTY, the highly anticipated new book series by author Jake Biondi, hits bookshelves nationwide on Friday, December 13. “I thought I’d make this particular Friday the thirteenth a very lucky one for my readers who have been eagerly, and patiently, awaiting the release of the first book in this exciting new series,” Biondi explained. “The holiday season is the perfect time of year to give readers the gift they have been waiting for all year long.” The first book in the MAJESTY series is titled Death of the King.

MAJESTY is a period piece that opens with the mysterious murder of King Zachary Chamberlain, head of the royal family. “The king’s murder sends the entire Chamberlain family, as well as their kingdom, into turmoil,” Biondi teased. “The king’s four sons all start looking at one another with suspicion as they try to restore stability to the kingdom and bring their father’s killer to justice.” In the meantime, some relationships fall apart, forbidden love flourishes, and a plot to overthrow the entire Chamberlain family is unleashed.

“I have always wanted to do a period piece,” Biondi stated when explaining the genesis of the MAJESTY series. “The Middle Ages is a fascinating time period and seemed like the perfect setting for a drama of this nature. I think readers are going to connect with these characters, regardless of the time period in which they live, because their struggles are very modern.”

In addition to the story and characters, Biondi is also excited for readers to see the book cover itself. “Perfect” is how Biondi described the cover, which was designed by Anna

Crosswell of Book Cover Couture. “The images and colors Anna used perfectly capture the excitement and tone of the series.”

The first MAJESTY book cover is particularly special to Biondi because it features two of his talented friends: model/actor Jesse Pattison and actor/dancer Devin Neilson. “Being able to feature Jesse and Devin on the book cover is such a thrill for me. They are both incredibly talented people who have been unbelievably supportive of my work. They are two very special friends whom I wanted to celebrate and showcase by featuring on the cover.”

“Jake Biondi is the most creative and innovative person I have come to know in Hollywood,” said Pattison. “To be one of the faces of his new MAJESTY series is surreal. As a kid, I always had Fabio-like dreams of being on a book cover and now my dreams have come true. Jake is a writer I truly believe in.”

Like Biondi’s BOYSTOWN series, MAJESTY comes filled with jaw-dropping twists and turns that will keep readers quickly turning the pages. “Jake Biondi is one of the most masterful writers of fiction of our time,” writes Roger Ward on Amazon.com. “While reading the first chapter of Jake Biondi’s latest novel MAJESTY, I was immediately reminded of Shakespeare’s famous line from the play Henry IV, Part 2, “Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown” – especially when you have a treacherous and backstabbing family waiting in the wings. MAJESTY is an action-packed novel full of twists, turns, and cliffhangers. Buckle your seatbelts, Biondi fans. It’s going to be a bumpy ride.”

“I hope MAJESTY will become a guilty pleasure for readers all over,” Biondi added.

MAJESTY Book One; The Death of the King is currently available in paperback format in bookstores nationwide as well as online.
